OUR SHENANDOAH

Words by C. L. Ross

Music by Russell MacMeans

Moderato, mf

1. Where shines the big Vir-gin-ia sun And old Dominion's streamlets run,
2. In na-ture's dooryard neatly planned A gift is placed by God's own hand,
3. What blighting frost can chill our zeal Or e-vil's fu-ry ev-er deal

From out the Massanutt's cool shade And down great Al-le-ghe-ny's glade,
The S. V. A. of sa-cred birth Our own dear school of sterling worth
A blow in madness fit to shake Our faith in thee, O S. V. A.

God's works in na-ture mul-ti-plied Ex-tol His name on ev-'ry side.
Whose bea-con lit by gos-pel truth Sheds ho-ly light on paths of youth.
Or cause our strength in future time To fag be-fore thy cause sublime?

CHORUS, f
O Shenan-do-ah, dear Shenan-do-ah, In thee do we delight to rest

poco rit.
And dai-ly strive to do our best, For Shen-an-do-ah, Shenan-do-ah.

AU REVOIR

The time has come when school friends part
To embark on their voyage of life,
With a cargo of dreams locked up in their heart
To sail in a sea of peace and strife.

The sea of life is a storm-tossed sea
With waves of trouble and shoals of sin
Where each shall meet his fate's decree,
When dreams shall close and acts begin.

The time has come to put to the test
Their lessons of seamanship.
So anchors aweigh, and pray that the best
Will christen their fleet of stewardship!

May all their ships come sailing in
And treasured plans come true,
May fortune smile as they begin
With God as their Pilot, and the will "to do."
