W. C. HANNAH
Principal

We are living in the days of opportunity. Never was there a time when reliable, responsible and well trained young men and young women were in greater demand than they are today.

God's cause needs you and the world is bidding for your services.

Shenandoah Valley Academy was founded many years ago to train young Seventh-day Adventists for work in God's cause and prepare for life's responsibilities.

We invite you young people to consider Shenandoah Valley Academy in your plans for the future.

W. C. Hannah

Dedication

To Our Parents

You have been our guiding influence for many years now; you have sacrificed so that we may have the advantages that you missed; you have given us our most precious heritage—a Christian education.

This education can never be taken away from us, and you may be assured that we will follow the Lord's advice:

"Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

Proverbs 22:6

To show our appreciation in a small way for these noble efforts on your part, we are proud to dedicate our 1953 SHENANDOAH to you,

OUR LOVING PARENTS

OUR SHENANDOAH

Words by C. L. Ross

Music by Russell MacMeans

Moderato. mf

1. Where shines the big Vir-gin-ia sun And old Dominion's streamlets run,
2. In na-ture's dooryard neatly planned A gift is placed by God's own hand,
3. What blighting frost can chill our zeal Or e-vil's fu-ry ev-er deal

From out the Massanutt's cool shade And down great Al-le-ghe-ny's glade,
The S. V. A. of sa-cred birth Our own dear school of sterling worth
A blow in madness fit to shake Our faith in thee, O S. V. A.

God's works in na-ture mul-ti-plied Ex-tol His name on ev-'ry side.
Whose bea-con lit by gos-pel truth Sheds ho-ly light on paths of youth.
Or cause our strength in future time To fag be-fore thy cause sublime?

CHORUS. f
O Shenan-do - ah, dear Shenan-do-ah, In thee do we delight to rest

poco rit.
And dai-ly strive to do our best, For Shen-an-do-ah, Shenan-do - ah.
