Foreword

An academy is a small world of students whose lives center about the campus: a world within a world. It is filled with countless daily occurrences, some of which we live, others we hear about, but, to most, they go both unknown and unnoticed. It is a world in which sorrow and success can follow each other in the space of an hour - from lingering doubt about a tough exam to the anticipation of a big weekend. To the student, the most serious world problem can seem a little smaller and more remote when compared to last night's basketball score, final exams, or the latest tuition fee. Actually, our removal is more mental than physical; it is a sort of preoccupation with our studies, personal religious experience, close friends, campus activities, and . . . just life in general, which leaves little time for thoughts of problems of national and international scope. We are aware of world events, yet somehow they are too removed and we continue in our active, little world apart - the academy.

Jo Ann Zent

William J. Strickland

From the time you came to this campus seven years ago, your unique combination of zest for life and an easy-going, kindly manner has enriched the lives of all of us who have known you.

As Spanish teacher, you have not been satisfied merely to drill into our minds this previously unknown tongue; but, each year you have led happy and venturesome bands in an invasion of the lands of the "conquistadors": Cuba, Mexico, Puerto Rico, and Colombia, capturing anew the romance, the pathos, and the mission needs of these Spanish cultures.

We, of the biennial Medical Cadet Corps, have learned not only strict military discipline under your command but we have also been prepared to step effectively into the role of Adventist, medical witnesses for Christ in the U. S. Army.

Perhaps if one were to try to sum up your most outstanding qualities into one word, it would be: humility. To illustrate: For the past five years, you have recorded with your camera our daily campus life. These pictures have been preserved for our future, fond recollection in the yearbooks you have sponsored. Though you have spent untold hours in producing our Shenandoan, you have let it be known that as long as you are sponsor a yearbook will not be dedicated to you.

Isn't it surprising what can happen?

Principal's Message

We thank you for looking at the pages of this book which contain treasured memories of Christian youth at Shenandoah Valley Academy. May the pictures of our youth and the incidents recorded herein help to inspire within you a successful desire to be more like Him, whom to know is life eternal.

DONALD MURPHY JACKSON, President

How hard it is to find adequate words to describe our energetic, democratic, and well-liked president. Although Don is an outdoor lover, his responsible duties as president of choir, Sigma Beta Chi, and the senior class give him little chance to indulge. SVA will miss this aspiring dentist's rich tenor voice.

RONALD CHARLES HUDSON, Vice-President

Thoughtful, responsible, and seemingly quiet Ronnie, our vice-president, has given much time in planning and organizing our class. When he sets a goal, Ronnie works untiringly until that goal is reached. Don't you agree that he made a wise choice when he decided to become a business administrator?

GEORGE ROGER TATUM, Secretary

As class secretary, Roger adds another unusual ability to his unique personality. Holding offices in SA, Radio Club, and Sabbath School besides participating in sports, Camping Club, and writing a witty column for the Shen-Val-Lore, win him the term "perpetual motion". His keen intellect and scientific aptitudes will add to his future success in the field of science.

WILLIS THEOPHOLIS MCGHINNIS, Treasurer

A true Virginia gentleman is Bill. The fact that he has held a class office all four years shows his leadership ability and popularity. Football and softball have been a vital part of school life for this senior monitor who looks forward to college days at AU and the realization of his dream to become a minister.

JOSEPH MICHAEL COOPER, Pastor

Joe, with his friendly, comical, and spiritual characteristics has added much to our campus. During the four years he has attended SVA, he has shown his talent by holding the offices of a Sabbath School teacher and superintendent and Sgt.-at-arms of Sigma Beta Chi. May the Lord bless you, Joe, as you serve Him in your chosen vocation as a minister.

WALTER JAY NIXON, Sergeant-at-Arms

You can easily spot coordinated Jay with a basketball, baseball, or football, depending on the season. Our sergeant-at-arms has also served as co-captain of the tumbling team and president of the Camping Club. His aptitudes in the field of science will aid him as he undertakes the study of science at CUC.

JOAN ANITA BAILEY

How could one forget this filled-to-the-brim-with-laughter gal. Whether on switchboard, where she has worked for the three years she has been here, or locking up switchboxes, Joanie has added that much needed happy word of encouragement. She will certainly prove a remarkable teacher.

ANNETTE ELIZABETH ALDERMAN

Annette is a reserved three-year student here at SVA who enjoys sketching and listening to folk music. She has the distinction of living closer to school than any other senior. Her plan to become an elementary school teacher is shown by her membership in the Teachers of Tomorrow Club.

DONNA MARIE AMENTLER

"Can't you do something with my hair?" These frantic words have confronted Donna before any big social occasion during the two years she has been here. Always friendly and willing to help, Donna comes to the rescue and receives practice for her chosen future as a beautician.

REBECCA LEE BARBOUR

With her kind and quiet ways Becky has been an integral part of school life during her four-year stay. In the afternoons you may find her assisting Miss Tope in the library. She has also taken part in religious activities as Sabbath School secretary. CUC will train this future social worker.

WILLIAM GARY BESENYEI

With interests in science and electronics Bill plans to enter the field of science or mechanics. This level-headed senior has been a member of the band, Ham Radio Club, and Sergeant-at-Arms of the Student Association. We wish him success as he goes on to Columbia Union College.

BETTY GAYLE ANDERSON

This eager canvasser can best be distinguished by her flaming red hair. She became a part of our class as a sophomore. We'll all remember Betty's inspiring Sabbath Schools, her work on the Shen-Val-Lore as typist, and the part she played as a member of choir and officer of the Teachers of Tomorrow Club.

GARNETTE ANNE BIRD

Attractive, red-haired "Kitty", who has attended SVA four years, enjoys sewing and music. Her experience as treasurer of the sophomore class, business manager of the annual, and worker in the Business Office for over two years will be an asset to her future aim to become a medical secretary.

JOYCE ANN ANDERSON

Joyce, a soft-spoken southerner, came to SVA two years ago. You can easily spot this blond-haired miss serving boys' deck in the cafeteria. Although she enjoys the athletic hobbies of horse-back riding and swimming, her future aim is to become a beautician.

ALLAN LEE BLACKBURN

Friendly, hardworking, athletic - all describe "Blackie", who came to SVA four years ago. He is interested in all sports and has shown his abilities in this line as captain of football, basketball, and softball teams. We are sure he will make a fine physical education instructor in the future.

ROBERT LEWIS BLACKBURN

Since arriving on campus two years ago Bob has been very friendly to all. He has participated in the band and Auto Mechanics Club. He takes pleasure in car racing, swimming, and getting to know others better. With a mind for figures he will pursue a life occupation in certified public accounting.

VICKIE STEVEN BLACKWELL

This three year student has become an unforgettable part of our stay here at SVA. "Cotton," as he is nicknamed, loves sports; his being sports secretary of Sigma Beta Chi, football captain, and basketball captain backs this fact. Although undecided on his future vocation, this senior plans to attend CUC.

ROY RICHARD BOEHM

Roy, with his good-natured and easy-going manner, has a knack for making you feel at ease around him. His contributions to religious life on campus include being a Sabbath School teacher, and assistant MV leader. Although he is undecided on a future career, next year will find him at SMC.

MARY ALICE BRADLEY

When Mary Alice leaves SVA, she will be bound for CUC to pursue the studies of a secretary. She has been here three years and during that time many guests have been welcomed by her ready smile as she performed her duties as receptionist. She enjoys skating, reading, and horseback riding.

JOHN CLARENCE BRIGHTON III

Teachers, as well as students, will remember Jack for his provocative questions. In fact his out-going personality is shown by his talkative manner and love for debate. Football plays an important role in this future dentist's life; and as a member of choir and choral, he reveals his interest in music.

MARY ELLEN BRISTOW

To be a nurse is Mary Ellen's aim and she will head to Southern Missionary College to fulfill this aim. The Future Nurses Club chose her as its social secretary during her two years here. Though she enjoys camping, cooking and swimming are her favorite pastimes.

TIMOTHY LEE BRYANT

Think of a big tease and you're thinking of Tim. As one who enjoys athletics, he is naturally a member of the tumbling team. Everyone will agree that he adds greatly to listeners' enjoyment by the rich, mellow tones he creates on his trombone. Much success as he studies to enter the medical profession.

DORIS KAYE BRYDEN

A quiet but witty Doris joined our SVA family for her junior year. She calls Rock Hall, Maryland, her home. Doris enjoys horseback riding and plans to prepare her life ambition as a secretary at Strayer Business College in Washington, D. C.

JAMES RICK BULLION

Those who best know this fun-loving senior will say he is a constant cut-up. Because sports are an enjoyable part of his life he is assistant sports secretary for Sigma Beta Chi and a member of tumbling team. His quick answers to questions will be of value in his future business career.

KATHRYN ELIZABETH BRANDAU

Two years ago this fun-loving miss left her home in Highland, Maryland, to join our school family. When we think of Kathy, we remember her dependable work under Mrs. Dove and also the times she spent on the tumbling team. She plans to train others as an elementary teacher.

RICHARD IVAN BYRD

Whenever a job needs to be done, Richard is always willing to do his best. His manners, which classify him as a gentleman, and also his hard work in the cafeteria are things we like about him. He intends to continue his education at CUC to study medicine.

LINDA LEE CAMPBELL

Receptionist of Sabbath School and pastorette of Girls' Club are offices which demonstrate the religious traits which Linda possesses. Besides actively participating in band, brass ensemble, and orchestra, Linda is vice-president of the Future Nurses Club and cafeteria hostess. Her smile will be missed as she goes to CUC in preparation for a life of nursing.

CHEERIE LOU CAPMAN

Quiet, modest, and conscientious Cheerie Lou has contributed much time and help to the Shen-Val-Lore as assistant editor and layout editor during the three years she has been on the staff. Journalism Club, Sabbath School, and Master Guide Club also claim her time and reveal her interests. Cherrie's willingness to help will bring her success as she guides the lives of future youth as a dean.

LINDA GAY CAPMAN

Talkative Linda Gay has proven herself a capable secretary by her positions as secretary of the Temperance Society, Master Guide Club, and also to the assistant principal. As Thea Fia pastorette, Student Devotion Speaker, and Sabbath School teacher, she has helped to create the religious atmosphere at SVA. To this friendly twin we wish success.

RONALD LELAND CARTER

MCC lieutenant, Sabbath School teacher, football captain, Sigma Beta Chi president, sophomore class president, SA Senator for two years, SA vice-president, SA president--who can deny the leadership ability of Ronny, alias "idea factory", so well-liked because of his genuine interest in others. We hope he is guided by the Master Physician in his career of medicine.

NANCY SHARON CASSADA

Sincere and gifted with a rich, contralto voice is Sharon. Since she arrived as a freshman she has steadily climbed the ladder of success as Sabbath School teacher, SA representative, sophomore vice-president, junior vice-president, chorister and president of Thea Fia. With all these claims on her time she has maintained honor grades and plans to attend SMC.

CAROLYN LEE COTTA

Ask this friendly little gal if she likes skating, swimming, and horseback riding and she is likely to shout, "Yah Man!" Can you imagine her being serious and quiet long enough to go on to Loma Linda to train as a dietitian - those are her plans. With her willingness to help others, she's likely to make her mark.

JUDITH FAITH COTTA

Possessing a fun-loving spirit and a gay sense of humor, she enjoys being around people. Whenever you hear a hearty laugh you know Judy must be nearby. This industrious bindery worker plans to attend CUC for additional training in her chosen career as a secretary.

BRENDA MAE CHAMBERS

To become a legal secretary is the anticipated lifework of this vivacious and intriguing Southern charmer. She enjoys swimming, skiing, singing in the choir, and plans to further her education at SMC. But future plans will most likely be planned carefully around "orange blossoms."

DI ANN FAYE COPENHAVER

For four years this charming and friendly girl has contributed to campus life by being active in sports and leading out as Sabbath School secretary. We wish her success as she goes to Columbia Union College to prepare for her future career as a nurse or physical education teacher.

ROBERT IVAN CROWDER

Bob came to SVA three years ago, full of sharp wit. From his birthplace, Capetown, South Africa, to California, to D. C., to Trinidad, it is a good thing this globe trotter admits he likes to meet people. His "around the world" experience will be an asset to him in his work as a psychologist.

JAMES WAYLAND DAVIS

During Jim's two years with us he has exhibited qualities of leadership as junior class president and Sabbath School superintendent. Most outstanding of his extracurricular activities which include the tumbling team and SA is his proficiency on the trumpet. Jim is looking forward to being a doctor and is planning to attend CUC.

ROBERT MICHEAL DAVIS

Although Bob was a new student this year, his classmates soon learned to appreciate his quiet and generous ways. This tumbling team member considers swimming and camping favorite pastimes. Bob plans to serve the community in which he lives as a mortician.

DONNA MARIE DOUGLAS

A bundle of energy, a love for athletics, and her enthusiasm toward choir constitute concisely a description of Donna, captain of the tumbling team. By industriously working the cafeteria and by being an alert hostess, Donna has revealed qualities which will be an asset to her in her chosen career of nursing.

SUSAN CARRINGTON DRAKE

Three years ago Susie, a soft-spoken brunette, who loves horses and spent most of her childhood riding one, arrived on campus. As Girls' Club secretary she has contributed to school life. Being gentle and good natured has made her a well-liked monitor, and we feel that with these characteristics she will reach her aim in life as a nurse.

ELMER RANDOLPH DEHAVEN

Elmer, president of the Auto Mechanics Club, is a lover of fun. For four years he has shown interests in athletics and was a member of the tumbling team. Weight lifting and cars are his hobbies. He is not only nifty, but thrifty; he earns his spending money by giving hair cuts.

ESTHER SUSAN DICKSON

In the four years Sue has been at SVA she has had foretaste into her chosen field. Being a secretary in the farm shop and laundry has encouraged Sue to take the secretarial science course at CUC. Her pleasant manner while Sabbath School receptionist is evidence that she will get along well as a secretary.

PATRICIA ANN DISNEY

"Pat" as we have known her will be remembered for her cheerful nature and dependable work during the two years she has been here. Long, dark hair, brown eyes, and dimples partially portray one of our seniors who plans to enroll in business school and become a secretary.

DAPHNE JEAN ELLER

For two years Daphne, editor of the Shen-Val-Lore, has sharpened our appreciation of the role music can have in our lives. On the piano she has participated in MV and Sabbath School, while on the sax she joins in on the saxophone trio and wind ensemble. Future history students better "watch out" for this honor roll student.

CLAUDIA ANNE FARNHAM

Not to be different, Claudis enjoys swimming and horseback riding, along with traveling and doing paintings in oil. During her three years here many have discovered that she loves fun and enjoys playing jokes on others but can be serious long enough to play her clarinet in the band.

RONALD LEE FISHER

Although Ron is a new senior this year, his constant chatter has enlivened our campus. He spends most of his time in the library grading. As he leaves SVA may his terrific sense of humor help him maintain good spirits while he is on the job as a mortician.

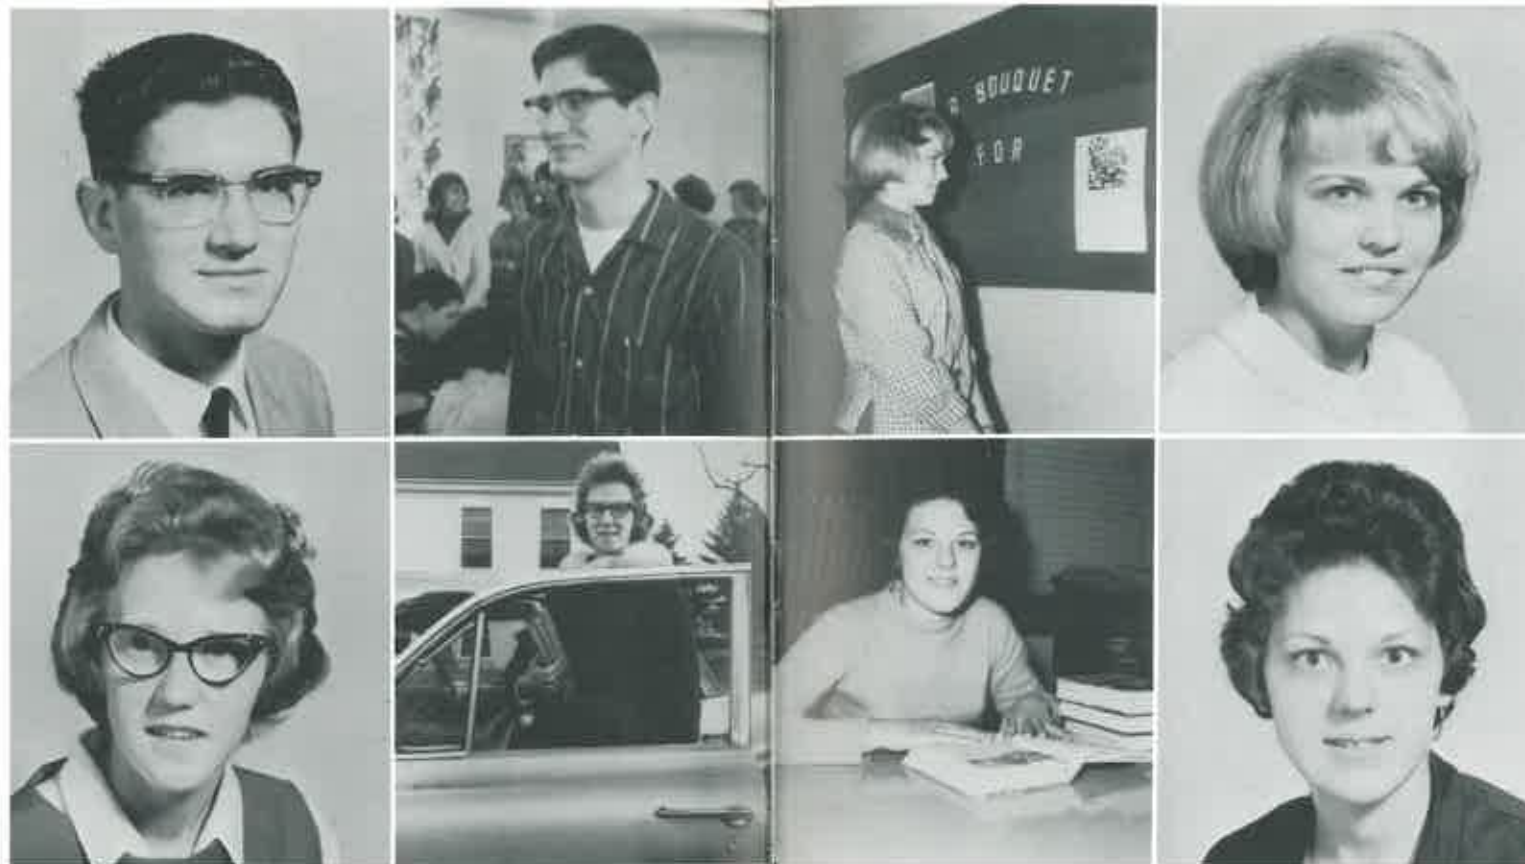

ROBERT FLOYD HAGAR

Quiet, hardworking Rob, noted for his gentlemanly ways, comes to us from Rockville, Maryland. His favorite hobby is coin collecting but his duties as publicity secretary of the Auto Mechanics Club and his work on the dairy take most of his time. We are assured of success as a physician.

GARY LYNN GILBERT

This quiet, amiable fellow has spent two years at SVA and during this time has been a Sabbath School teacher and usher. He also led out religiously by presenting a Student Devotion Talk. Boating and giving Bible studies are enjoyable to Gary and they should be since he plans to be medical missionary.

HELEN IRENE HAMANN

This 5' 1" blue-eyed blonde who comes from Silver Spring, Maryland, has spent three years here at Shenandoah. During these years, Irene has faithfully worked many hours at the bindery. Of all her hobbies she enjoys drawing the most.

WANDA FAYE GOOD

Blonde-headed Wanda, who comes from nearby Stanley, Virginia, has for two years worked efficiently in the principal's office where her secretarial skills have been put to a good use. She plans to make further use of these skills in her chosen life work as a secretary. CUC beckons this Southern lass.

NANCY JEANNE HASSENPLUG

Distinguished because of her brown hair and matching eyes, this village student seems to enjoy the distinction of being able to drive her car to school each morning. For the past two years she has joined in on the fun and good times shared by all. Quiet and reserved but with a helpful manner she will continue sharing life with others as a secretary.

HELEN GAIL GORBENKO

Sincere and sweet, Helen is one of our four-year students. She has not only received the friendship of others but has given herself as a friend to all. As the student work supervisor, she keeps Hadley Hall immaculate. Any dentist would be fortunate to get Helen as an assistant.

ELMA LOUISE HEINS

One of the new faces around campus this year is Elma, who is never too busy to find time for humor. Though mischievous, she is looking forward to a career as a nurse, finishing her advanced schooling at CUC. We wish you much success in your future vocation.

ARTHUR DALE GRIMES

This quiet but jokative senior has been with us for two years. Art enjoys water sports and "hot cars." He has been president of the Teachers of Tomorrow Club and has been a member of the Master Guide, Camping Club, and band. He plans to attend EMC.

JOAN CAROL HOOKER

If you are calling for a girl whose middle name is fun, and who is the life of the party, then you are calling for Joanie. Although this is her first year at Shenandoah, she has been assistant sub-campaign leader and taken an active part in the choir and SA. Her witty personality will be missed as she leaves us.

FRANKLIN WILLIAM HORKY

Frank's warm smile has added to the friendly spirit of Shenandoah these past four years. This member of male chorus and chorale has also led out as MV song leader and has used his time wisely by industriously working in the broomshop. May success be yours in future plans, Frank.

OPAL JEAN HUFFMAN

Upon arriving at Shenandoah, Opal began her industrious work in the bindery and is admired for working her entire way through school. Her artistic ability is demonstrated in posters drawn for the girls' sub campaign and she has also proven an asset to the choir. She is well liked because of her sincere and quiet ways.

DIANA LYNN JOHNSON

Chesapeake, Virginia, is the home of this future secretary. To many she is known as a friendly person who is interested in all water sports. For her two years here she has worked in the kitchen and is planning to further her education at Columbia Union College.

JUDITH LYNNE JOHNSON

From Madison, Tennessee, came this southern belle to SVA. Truly Judy is an individualist. She enjoys such things as music, art, and writing. Because of her literary interest she has written articles for the Shen-Val-Lore and been a member of Journalism Club. She plays in the percussion section of the band and also works in the band studio.

KENNETH DELFORD JOHNSON

Ken, who stands out as a studious young man, also enjoys participating in various activities around campus. He is a member of the Radio Club and Auto Mechanics Club. After being here for three years, he has chosen to be a radiologist and plans to study for this profession at La Sierra College.

GEORGE WILLIAM JONES

George, a senior with the admirable aim to do "everything right" and make his life worthwhile, has crammed much into his first year on our campus. Certainly his tenor voice has been an asset to choir and chorale. We wish success to this future physician as he specializes in anesthesiology.

ROBERT EVAN JONES

To become a physical education instructor is sports-loving Bob's objective. He seems to have wings on his heels at school picnic track meets. He is also the main attraction on skates. Playing his trumpet in band and the brass ensemble discloses his feelings about music.

PRISCILLA JAYNE KEARNS

People with a good sense of humor are a favorite of this sunny blonde. She also enjoys cooking, sewing, eating, and reading. In the afternoon she can be found fulfilling her duties in the bindery. Her ambition in life is to be a medical secretary.

DELORES ANN KILLEN

Since her freshman year we have been favored by "Benji's" musical talent as a soloist, a member of the choir, chorale, girls' trio, and Thea Fia chorister. Ask this Southerner what she enjoys most and she will answer, "horses and talking." Next year she plans to continue her education at SMC.

BYRON BYRD KINSLEY

Most of us have become acquainted with Byron because of his job as host in the kitchen. He is punctual, neat, religious, and has held such offices as Sabbath School teacher and superintendent. SVA has had Byron in attendance for two years now. We wish him the best in his study of ophthalmology.

ARTHUR JOSEPH KNISBELL, JR.

Artistically inclined, Joe has attended SVA only one year, but during this time he has shown his gentlemanly manners to us. Florida is his home, and he naturally enjoys surfing. Those who don't know Joe think he's quiet and reserved, but once you get to know him, what an interesting conversationalist you've discovered.

HARLAND GUILFORD LEWIS

During the past four years "Cool Gillis" has won his way into our hearts. Always ready to enjoy the joke, Gil has proven a very compatible classmate. As vice-president of Radio Club, business manager for the sub-campaign, and officer of Sigma Beta Chi, he has done successful jobs. The field of science will gain much with this honor roll student.

DONALD JAMES LINDSAY, JR.

Want to be entertained? Try the music studio where you might find this well-rounded individual skillfully playing his guitar, clowning around, or practicing directing techniques he plans to use for his musical career. We are partially indebted to him for our class song. His baritone voice has enriched the quartet and other music organizations.

DIXIE DELORES LITTEN

A rich soprano voice and a job as head monitor are things that make us think of Dee. She has participated in all musical activities, is co-captain of the tumbling team, and led the girls to victory in the sub campaign. Besides singing, Dee likes to sew, and plans to be a secretary and receptionist in a dentist's office.

RICHARD ALLAN LANE

A fellow with raven black hair and a grin splashed on his face, who enjoys model cars and is tops in math could be nobody else but Ricky. For two years he has taken an active part in all phases of campus life.

MARILYN KAY LANTZ

This quiet three-year senior came to us from Winchester, Virginia. Even though she seems reserved, she has a sense of humor noticeable to those who know her best. Reading is one of her pastimes, and with Shenandoah behind her she intends to enter SMC for a secretarial course.

ROSE MANILA LENER

Sports, swimming, skating, and tumbling are the favorites of Rose, who came three years ago to SVA from Unionstown, Pennsylvania. She has been a member of the tumbling team for two years and the Master Guide Club for one year. Her friendliness and sweet smile will assure her success in life.

JAMES ELTON LUKE

The word "extrovert" is an almost complete description of Jim, who came from Michigan to Dixieland for his senior year. Do you sometimes wonder what goes on behind the blue eyes of this tall, slim, and scientifically-minded person? His personality will greatly benefit him for his goal as an orthodontist.

DANIEL GENE LEWIS

This happy, tall blond has certainly maintained his high scholastic goals since arriving four years ago from Sutherland, Virginia. Danny not only enjoys camping, caving, and chemistry, but also his positions as president of the Master Guide Club and SA treasurer. His outgoing personality will definitely make his chosen vocation as a physician all the more enjoyable.

JEANNE ESTHER MAAS

Put yourself in Jean's place. Could you get up at 5 o'clock in the morning to satisfy your craving for reading? Not only reading, but horses, drawing, and traveling are other hobbies of this quiet, poised senior. Although not sure about her life ambition we wish her success.

65

GERALD CLINTON MACE

Gerald's interests in science and math will aid him greatly as he enters the field of medicine. We will remember him for his fine Christian character and his quiet and refined manners. Success to this four-year student as he graduates and goes on to CUC to prepare himself for service to humanity.

JUNE ELIZABETH MACE

Each afternoon this future nurse can be seen in the assistant principal's office fulfilling her secretarial duties. Her smile and dancing dark eyes somehow seem to radiate sunshine. Because of her understanding and patient manner, we feel our assistant editor of the SHENANDOAN and honor roll student is an asset to the school.

DONNA SUE MALIN

The qualities of being efficient and precise classify quiet and reserved Donna as a dependable worker in the business office. She enjoys the trips off campus to which she is entitled by playing in the band. Painting and swimming will continue to be hobbies of Donna next year at CUC.

BONNIE GALE MANEVAL

A day in the principal's office wouldn't be typical without Bonnie. She has made many friends with her sweet disposition and we have no doubt that she will fulfill her desire to be an elementary school teacher. She plans to attend CUC in the fall to continue her education.

AUDRY ELAINE MILLNER

Perhaps it is Elaine's likeable disposition and her enthusiasm that have made her such an outstanding Thea Fia president. This outgoing individual, who was secretary of her sophomore class, likes sports and plans to attend CUC so that she may serve humanity in the future as a physical therapist.

LINDA JOYCE MIZELLE

The Master Guide Club and Nursing Club are fortunate to have this quiet, efficient girl as a member. Linda has spent two years here and during these years has shown her interest in outdoor sports by her participation. Soon Linda will leave SVA to enter a school of nursing where she will study as she takes the pledge of Florence Nightingale.

JOHN GROVE MYERS

Band, Auto Mechanics Club, Medical Cadet Corps and several other activities have filled this senior's four years at SVA. John has spread gladness by his cheery smile which will be missed. His willingness to work as shown in the broomshop, will prove of great value in whatever life work he will choose.

LEWIS STEPHEN O'NEAL

Steve's southern accent betrays the fact that he hails Norfolk, Virginia, as home. For two years he has sung in choir and chorale and plans to study at SMC. We hope the friendly ways of this tall senior with expressive blue eyes will enable him to be a successful doctor.

STEPHEN WAYNE PATRICK

It seems that Steve likes to transform a dull moment into a hilarious situation. For four years this likeable person with twinkling eyes and teasing ways who really seems to enjoy living has belonged to SVA. With his interest in serving others as a doctor he intends to pursue his pre-medical training at CUC.

DAVINA PRISCILLA PECK

Cheerful and industrious "Davey" in the past two years has stayed on campus the year round to work in the bindery. With her plans to attend SMC, her inquiring mind and knack for meeting situations in a mature way will be a useful asset to her ambition to be a nurse.

EVELYN MARIE PESTER

Evelyn's interests are along many lines. Being Sabbath School teacher, treasurer of freshman class, feature editor of Shen-Val-Lore, and a band member are facets of her life at Shenandoah. But what is outstanding about Evelyn is her addiction to A's--she exclusively manufactures them! She is well suited for her future work in elementary education.

PATRICIA ANN PETIT

Pat, as she is known to us, has attended Shenandoah for three years. She is very conscientious and does her job well as first floor monitor. We can be certain that future success in elementary education awaits this thoughtful and sincere young miss.

MARGARET PRISCILLA PHILIPS

Fun-frolicking, spirited Prissy has put a sparkling touch to campus activity since her arrival three years ago. Seriously speaking this choir and chorale member has done a top-notch job as SA secretary, Sabbath School teacher, MV Leader, and SHENANDOAN staff member. This dimpled miss will share her Christian zeal with her future physical therapy patients.

65

DAVID EDWIN SCHERMERHORN

A good book and a piece of lemon pie is Dave's idea of an enjoyable evening. This is his first year at SVA. Can you see yourself getting up at 3 o'clock in the morning as Dave does to pasteurize milk for us? Much success to him as he undertakes the study of astrophysics.

66

BONNIE MARIE SCHUTTE

Bonnie, a short and petite, southern lass from Richmond, Virginia, is distinguished as the smallest girl on campus. She arrived two years ago and because of her fun-loving nature she has added much to the social side of campus. Her sweet disposition will aid her in caring for the sick as a nurse.

HOWARD DENNIS POWELL

It was two years ago that this future minister came to SVA. His spiritual nature has been a help in Sabbath School teaching and as the assistant literature band leader. His likes include flat top hair cuts and cars. He intends to enter CUC.

CAROLYN JEAN SEELEY

K.P. duty? Carol loves it! During her four years here she has added much to the lively spirit of the kitchen. Her leisure activities include swimming, water skiing, and music. She hopes to attend CUC to prepare for her vocation of nursing.

CHARLES LARRY PUGH

This tall, slender boy calls Vienna, Virginia, home. Although this is only his first year, Larry has joined in on the various activities such as a Sabbath school teacher for first semester. He is a shrewd businessman and plans to use this characteristic in becoming an administrator or lawyer.

CONNIS YVONNE SEELEY

Be it in the bindery, dorm, or just anywhere on campus, lively Connis adds gaiety and laughter to the situation. We have all known and appreciated this senior since her arrival from Buchanan, West Virginia, four years ago. SMC will surely welcome this hard worker.

67

DONALD CLAUDE SHAW

Known as one of the spiritual leaders on campus, Don has prepared himself for his lifework as a pastor by holding the offices of pastor of Student Association, Boys' Club, and the junior class. As president of band, he has shown his interest in music. This friendly and sincere senior is certain to succeed.

FLOYD MICHAEL SHELTON

An antique car enthusiast, "Wrink" also enjoys model airplanes and Ham radio as hobbies. Though mischievous, he is quietly active in various clubs in addition to his membership in choir and male chorale. His future plans point to aeronautical engineering as a life work. We wish him much success as he leaves SVA.

BEVERLY JANE SICKLER

Bubbling over with energy, Beverly adds zip to life on campus. With her happy-go-lucky attitude she has changed many frowns into beaming smiles. Her few extra inches aid her as she dashes around campus leading out as ATS secretary, vice-president of band, and monitor. We hope our laughter-loving Bev will be a successful dental hygienist.

CARL EDWIN SHOWERS, JR.

Tall, dark, and reserved Carl has made Shenandoah his home for the past year. Coming from Pennsylvania, he has had a taste of southern life. Among his interests are athletics; and his work at switchboard in J. Lee Price Hall is appreciated.

CARLOTTA LOUISE SMITH

This lively future English teacher has spent two years at Shenandoah, and means to many she meets an atmosphere of fun. Her greatest interests center around her love for horses, but she still finds time to enjoy a good book. She intends to accomplish her goals at Marion College, Virginia.

MARGARET FRANCE SPROUT

Since Margaret landed on campus three years ago she has demonstrated that it is nearly impossible for her to be perturbed. Her sparkling, dark eyes have contributed to her friendliness to all. Looking forward to her career as an interior decorator, she plans to finish her advance schooling in Cologne, France.

CONNIE EDITH STERNER

Soft-spoken Connie made her entrance into SVA school life her junior year. Her patience and gentle manners have benefited her as she has industriously worked in the bindery. Religious activities play a definite role in Connie's life. A dedicated missionary nurse will soon join the ranks with others who have gone before to serve humanity.

ROBERT LEE STERNER

Bob cheerfully spends his working hours in the bindery where he has been doing an efficient job for the last two years. He is active in sports and enjoys working for honors in Master Guide. CUC will train this future draftsman.

GERALDINE LOUISE STILL

By winning the Shen-Val-Lore sub campaign with over 500 subscriptions, no wonder Gerry was chosen to be circulation manager of the paper and SHENANDOAN business manager. As a skillful musician on the flute she has become an integral part of campus life. This village student will train at CUC for a nursing degree.

ALEXIS FAYE THOMAS

A combination of smiles, big brown eyes, and a friendly, outgoing personality all wrapped up in one petite package denotes Lex. During her two years' stay she has claimed her place at SVA as junior class secretary, Thea Fia vice-president and a member of choir and chorale. CUC beckons this aspiring doctor.

DAVID ALIAN THOMAS

Quiet and blue-eyed David finds pleasure in watersports and cars. Around campus he likes to spend his time in the farm and industrial arts shop where he is a lab instructor. He took an active part in choir last year. David will naturally pursue the challenge of a career in mechanics.

CHARLES EDWARD TRUE, JR.

Having an interest in sports, Charley has found a distinct part of school life for himself by being a member of the tumbling team and vice-president of the Auto Mechanics Club. Choir and his hobby, weightlifting, occupy most of his remaining spare time. To become a teacher of agriculture is this senior's ambition.

REBECCA ANNE THORNTON

Adjectives such as: dependable, laughable, and witty all describe this senior monitor. She came as a sophomore to become one in the school family. Because of her considerate attitude she shows towards her fellow students, she has gained many lasting friendships. As a secretary Becky is certain to enliven any office.

MARK WILLARD VEJNAR

Mark has been another faithful four-year student of SVA. He has been a member of the choir, band, male chorale and other musical organizations. Archery and shooting are some of his favorite hobbies. Mark is very interested in music and plans to major in it.

JOSEPH RONALD WAYNER

This well-built football player seems to be just the person for sergeant-at-arms of Sigma Beta Chi and choir. We marveled his sophomore year at his regular visits to Ad Council meetings. Having interests in drawing and oil painting, a future in architecture appeals to this original and good natured, four-year student.

DONALD ROBERT TITUS

This cafeteria worker has made the past two years here at Shenandoah a memory of funny and gay times. He has put a spark to classroom environment with his ready wit. He enjoys outdoor life and has chosen a vocation as building contractor which will place him in the great outdoors.

LINDA ANN WEIS

For two years we have known Linda, and have appreciated her talents along the musical line. Her soprano voice can often be heard whether it be in programs or just around the dorm. She enjoys reading and swimming, and her plans are to attend Columbia Union College and become a dental hygienist.

GARLAND ROGER TROWER

During his two years at SVA Roger has been a member of the band, has helped in Sabbath School by teaching, and in MV as a literature band leader. Among his hobbies are hunting and participation in water sports. Next year will find Roger enrolled at Duke University or La Sierra College as he begins his training to become a lawyer.

LINDA GAIL WHITE

This friendly senior left home two years ago to come to SVA. She has been an efficient infirmary worker. As a member of the Future Nurses' Club she has shown her interest in the field of medicine. As she goes on to CUC to reach her goal as a registered nurse, we wish her success.

DAVID HERMEN WILKENS

Always looking on the funny side of life, David adds brightness to seemingly drab predicaments. His participation in many musical activities - band, choir, male chorus, brass ensemble, and wind ensemble - reveals his musical inclinations. He has chosen to complete his education at CUC which will prepare him for a career in the world of music.

DANIEL LEE WILSON

Danny, a four-year student from Rising Sun, Maryland, has been a very faithful and reliable worker in the cafeteria. Hobbies for him are classified as "any sport" with special emphasis on swimming. The best sportsmanship award was given to Danny in football for 1962-63. He has been a captain of many ball teams.

HELEN KAY WITT

Helen's talents and bright ideas have merited her many activities all over campus. She has held such positions as Thea Fia pianist, Feminine Fancies columnist, member of band and choir; and her work as secretary for three persons simultaneously shows the demand for her talent in secretarial science. All evidence points to her success as a legal secretary.

RITA JEANINE WOODS

This mature and intellectual senior, who is third floor head monitor, has shown a great interest in our SA by being an SA officer all three years she has attended SVA. Business manager of the Shen-Val-Lore campaign, band vice-president, SHENANDOAN typist, sax trio, and Thea Fia treasurer are extracurricular activities of this future physical therapist.

LINDA ANN YATES

To think of Linda is to think of laughter. This young lady who obviously enjoys life has claimed a corner of many hearts for the two years she has been with us. Many wishes for her success go with her as she goes to CUC and enters the vocational field of teaching.

JO ANN RAE ZENT

It would be difficult to find something our SHENANDOAN editor-in-chief hasn't done that she could have. As an officer of Master Guide, MV, Sabbath School, Camping Club, and as an artistically talented lass, Jo certainly has contributed generously to SVA. Being able to carry responsibility will benefit this national poster winner in the field of surgical nursing.

GARL EDWIN ZENTZ

Never too busy to find time for fun, this future band and music teacher has enriched both his own and our interest in music by the active role he has played in band as president, a member of the trumpet trio, brass and wind ensembles, orchestra, and male chorale. This fall AU will welcome this friendly honor student.

RANDALL JAMES SCHULER

Randy, the newest member of our senior class, has taken no time in getting to know and like our way of life here at Shenandoah. Although now pushing a broom around in Price Hall, he still dreams about his flights as a pilot. Walla Walla will welcome this future doctor.

SPONSOR: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith and family

MOTTO: To live fully is to serve willingly

AIM: Service, Victory, Achievement

COLORS: Camel, Green, White

FLOWER: Carnation

Dear to the hearts of the senior class is Mr. Bendall. For 2 years he has helped make our class the success that it is. We will all remember his wise leadership and helpfulness. As a counselor, teacher, or friend, he has always been there to give his time and advice. His wife, Peggy, and their 3 children, Dougie, Barbarie, and Beverly also play an important role in his life. We will always remember the part you played in our lives by guiding our footsteps in the right direction.

As we leave, in our memory will be the treasured friendship of Mr. Smith, our sponsor for the past 4 years. To him we have been able to tell our problems, desires, and secrets. He has been willing and ready to help in any way he has been needed; and the advice he has given will long be remembered by the class. Helping her husband with the responsibility of sponsorship has been his wife, Louise. They have 3 boys, Dennis, Brian, and Allan. For your wise and understanding ways we will consider you a friend always.

GOOD-BYE

We say it for an hour, or for years;
We say it smiling, say it choked with tears;
We say it coldly, say it with a kiss;
And yet we have no other word than this -
"Good-bye."

We have no dearer word for our hearts friend,
For him who journeys to the world's far end,
And scares our soul with going; thus we say,
As unto him who steps but o'er the way -
"Good-bye."

Alike to those we love and those we hate,
We say no more in parting. At life's gate,
To him who passes out beyond earth's sight,
We cry, as to the wanderer for a night -
"Good-bye."
