SHENANDOAN

What do you see?

Everyone sees it differently, just like life at SVA. Even though we all live together, under the same conditions, rules, and schedules, all of our experiences are different. This yearbook is just one perspective. How have your eyes seen it?

Dedication to...Mr. and Mrs. Strickland, and Mrs. Liers, for all they've given to us.

The name Mrs. Strickland is synonymous with every positive adjective listed in Webster's unabridged dictionary. She is not just a former boss, she is a role model, a teacher, and a sounding board. But most importantly she is a dear friend, not only to me, but to many other students who have passed through S.V.A. Her hard work and dedication are evident when you look at our campus. Every inch of our approximately .10 acre Groomed campus was treated with the same care as her own back yard. Mrs. Strickland, affectionately called "Charlie" by some of her workers, has impacted many lives and she has certainly enriched mine. The flowers are her friends, and the students are a large part of her life.

The other half of the Strickland dynamic duo is Mr. Strickland, aka. Mr. S.V.A. For any student, or alumni of S.V.A., hearing the name, William Strickland, evokes feelings of admiration, love, and gratitude. During his early years at S.V.A., he is remembered for being a true adventurer, sponsoring trips to foreign lands, bird watching, and backpacking. In his 39 years at S.V.A., he served as principal, teacher, class sponsor, development director, and graduation coordinator, but along with all these accomplishments, Mr. Strickland will be remembered as an advocate for the students.

Without Mr. and Mrs. Strickland's countless hours, and selfless dedication, S.V.A. would not be what it is today. Students, teachers, and alumni will never forget how they shaped lives and touched hearts. Consider yourself lucky if you had the opportunity to get to know either of the Stricklands.

-Heather Traversi

"Never snap your fingers at her."
-Anon.

"Mrs. Liers...my MOTHER?"
-Mr. Williams

"She's always smiling."
-Megan Litten

"She's one of the best teachers I ever had...and that's not just because I want a cow named after me."
-Catrice Moffet

"She's a wonderful inspiration."
-Kari Hooper

"She just amazes me. She can run a farm, run the classroom...she can do everything."
-Mark Taskforce Man

"She's the coolest mom around."
-Eric Dingman

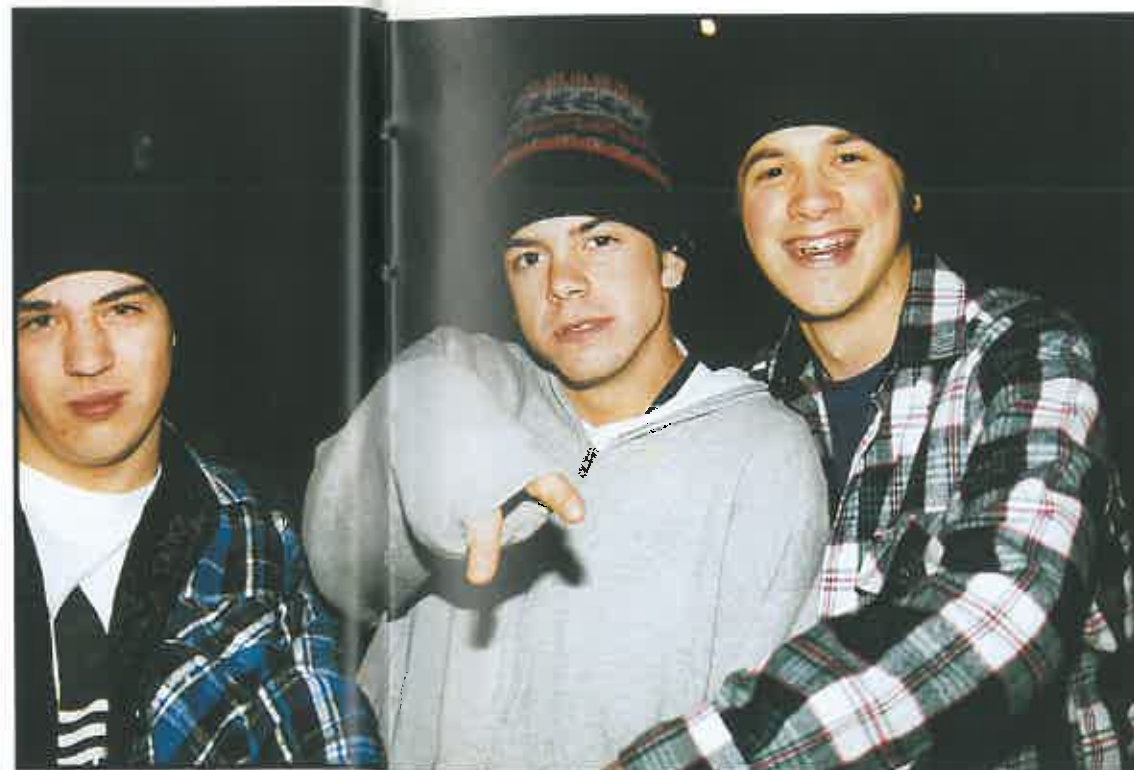

"She's very understanding."
-Vikki White

"She's the best boss and I'm going to miss her."
-Nikki Vanderbilt

JUST A PEEK . . .

Being a student at SVA means --

- Enjoying the activities available
- Tolerating dorm life
- Making yourself wake up for that 7 am class
- Being responsible and meeting your appointments every day
- Opening your mind to learn and experience
- Working up the courage to ask someone to the banquet
- Meeting new people, making new friends
- Involving yourself in spiritual opportunities
- Learning to eat different food
- Participating in sports
- Getting to work on time & doing the job
- Getting off campus

HANDSHAKE

Daniel Charles wonders what Gerson has that he doesn't have.

David J., Jason Z., and Eric R. aren't quite sure about this hand shaking thing.

Meet HEATH!

Brian Baker hopes that his crown won't mess up his hair.

Mr. Wile takes advantage of his S.P. powers!

The last of the handshakers don't get as much attention.

Below Left: Junior class "SUPER-WOMEN"

Below: "I like green."

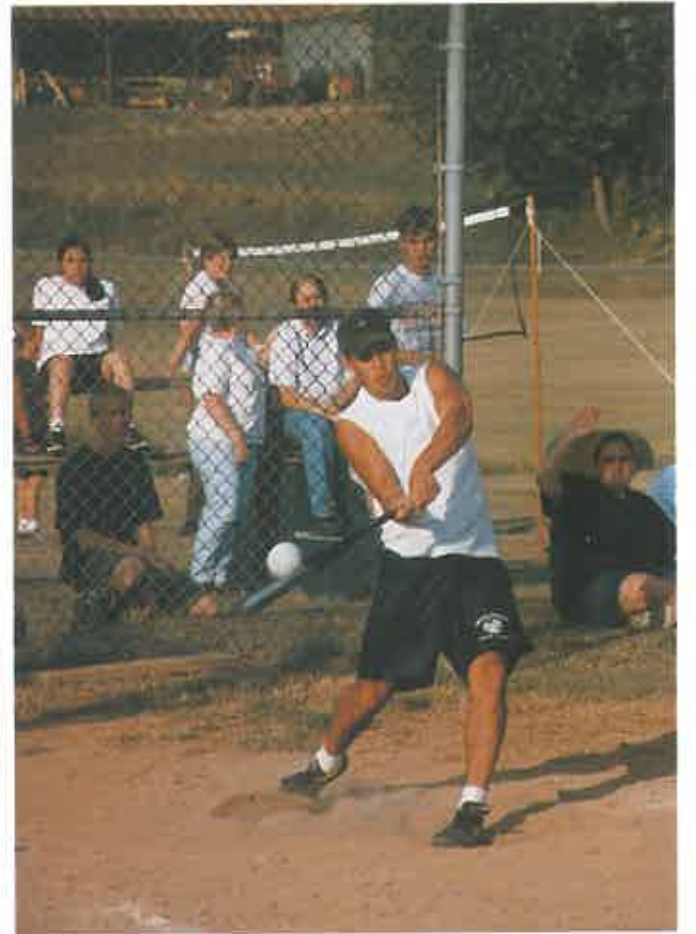

The Seniors always have to do something different.

Who is that masked man?

Greg is still a freshman at heart and mind.

Fall Picnic

Friends and People

The C.F. crew and friends do Kings Dominion

Above: Andrea, Emily, and Josie are sitting pretty in the sun

Right: Too much studying is bad for the nerves

Left: "Tim, you're supposed to be sitting up!"

Below Left: Raquel holds back the crowd at the barn party

Below: The Three Amigos

Left: If two's company, and three's a crowd, what do you call this?

Barn Party

Open House Banquet

C.J., Al, Manny, Joe, and Briggs entertained the group.

Gary joins Catrice on stage for a love song.

James accessorizes beautifully for the banquet.

Top: Brian holds the seat of honor at this banquet table.

Above: Tara really loved the pineapple drink.

Above: Aahhhh...

Left: Beatrice and Aaron smile sweetly for the camera

SMILES

Adopt-A-Child Christmas Party

Merrie and Rachel wonder where the real Santa Clause is.

"Andre, I'm going to throw up!!!"

Chryssi has found a new way to restrain her kid.

Jeff and Jodi's kid was the winner of the "Chubby Cheek Award."

Tammae wonders how much longer she has to entertain these kids.

"Tiffany! Save me from Suzanne's death grip!!!"

"Two crowns for me, none for you."

"Okay, you can let go of me now."

"Just PLEASE tell your Mom you had a good time!"

Foreign Exchange Students

Organizations through Liesl's eyes:

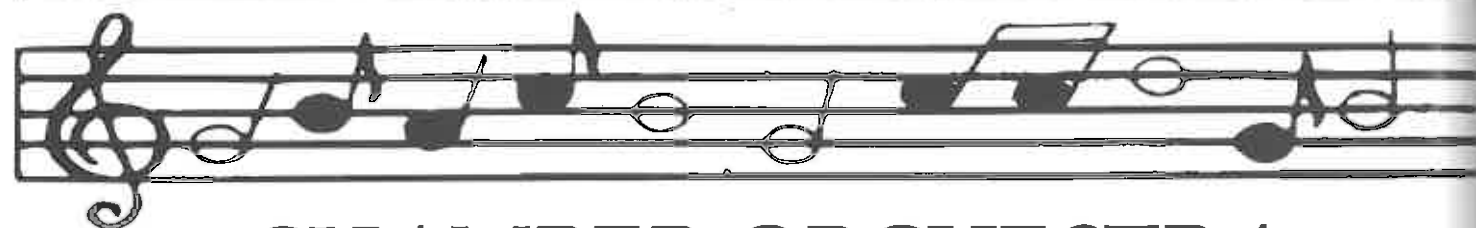

Here at SVA we pride ourselves on having many organizations allowing for student involvement. In order to have a good experience and enjoy your years spent here, you must get involved! There are a number of clubs and musical groups to be a part of. Symphonic band, the Shenandoans, National Honor Society, and the Foreign Student Club are just a few options. Every year there is an international tour taken by either the band or the Shenandoans. NHS and the Foreign Student Club organize many local trips. It is definitely worth getting involved. You will make unforgettable memories and have a chance to become a real part of life at SVA.

Sports through Nick's eyes:

Sports at SVA are just as much a part of school spirit as the awesome cafeteria entrees. You just can't get enough of it. Whether it's softball, intramurals, or basketball, it's always the same; Jodi Bryan outplays all the boys. Aside from track and baseball, SVA has a vast variety of sports to offer. If you don't like basketball or volleyball, you can play flag football (as long as you're a guy), softball, or floor hockey. Our great sports programs also include the Stars Varsity basketball, volleyball, and soccer teams. Students learn to work together, lose and win well, and of course we all learn not to underestimate certain females.

Spiritual Life through Marjorie's Eyes:

Shenandoah Valley Academy is a place where Christ dwells, not in secrecy but in the open, among the best fighting force for the Gospel. . . youth. Many at SVA have pushed Christ away, ignored his Spirit, or embraced him; but within the last two years students have realized they are warriors, too. Prayer groups, shut-in visitation, prayer ministry, and many other spiritual programs on campus have developed out of the minds and actions of youth. I pray, as I have always prayed, that each of the students here will accept Christ with zeal and humble devotion. God bless in the years to come and may He become as real to you as your dreams for the future.

In Faith, (Hebrews 11)

Academics through our principal's eyes:

The acid test to our academic program is whether SVA graduates experience occupational success. Our accomplished alumni testify to the high academic standards we provide. SVA exists for our students, and no other reason. Beyond spiritual excellence, our dedicated faculty and staff are determined to graduate minds which embrace and use better resources in a technologically advanced society. Our success in growing God-given talent is what makes Shenandoah Valley Academy the school of choice.

CONGRATULATIONS
AARON & CLASS of '99

Our round, chubby little boy has grown up to be a well-rounded lad that still brings laughter into our lives.

May God put His hand upon you, and may you respond to
His touch. Love,
Mom, Dad, Althea & Andrei

Dearest Jeff,

We remember. . . your baby-boy laugh, backwards stomach slides down the stairs, Bear, story hour at Yarmouth library, driving the boat before you started school, Colby and Dusty, Little League batting titles, hiking in the Alps, Rancho Neuavo mud and Mexican teeth, Pathfinders and tube riding on frozen Lake Webb, Thanksgiving baskets, all those lawns you mowed, sand dune jumping in Boca, painting the PTA gym, your red Civic, bumpy cruises on Casco Bay, Three Pointers, trumpet tunes, diving and driving in Maui, off-roading almost everywhere, karaoke serenades, late night calls from Europe, Great Goal Keeping, Nikon pictures of everything from everywhere. . . and you have only just begun!

The Lord has a special purpose for your life, and we know you will always be His and ours. We love you more than words can express.

All our love,

Mom, Dad, and Kristen

Dear April,
If I could I'd try to shed your innocence
from time.
But the part of life I gave you isn't mine.
I've watched you grow
so I could let you go.
Ken and I are so proud of you.
Congratulations!
Love,
Kenny
and
Mom

JEFF GLEASON

Since the day you were born, you've brought love, joy, and constant activity to our family. Your inquisitive mind always trying to "figure" and "invent," has kept us on our toes. Your physical strength, caring generosity, your determination and perseverance, your loyalty and depth of love for family and friends amaze us.

Jeff, you've had to deal with difficult challenges that most people never have to face. You have met those challenges with courage, strength of character, and maturity. Instead of making excuses and doing less, you square your shoulders and do more. We stand in awe of the developing maturity seen in the decisions you've made.

Jeff — we love you. You are an answer to prayer and our dream come true. We've always been proud of you, but never as much as we are now. We see you choosing to follow the Lord's way. He has a special plan for your life. Put yourself fully into His hands and He will guide you in reaching your full potential, because He loves you.

Love you lots,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations, Joy!

We're so proud of you and love you.

Mom, Dad, Jeremy, Julene, and Drinian.

Dearest Haley,

We are so proud of you. Not just for all your accomplishments, for you have certainly graced our family with your music and art, but for your loving acts and who you are.

We love you, Mom, Dad, Heather, Mom-Mom, Grandma and Grandpa

For what's the use of two strong legs if you only run away and what good is the finest voice with nothing good to say and what good is strength and muscle if you only push and shove and what's the use in two good ears if you can't hear those you love? Cause its not just what you're born with it's what you choose to bear. It's not how large your share is but it's how much you can share and it's not the fights you've dreamed of, but those you really fight. It's not just what you're given, it's what you do with what you've got.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Dear Manuel,
 When you were young,
 You were the smallest.
 Now, you are almost the tallest...
 You have grown up
 Mentally and spiritually too.
 We could not be more proud of
 You! We love you and wish
 You God's blessing in the Future.

Dear Tiffany:

I remember when you were our little girl. As much a part of us as our right arm. Our every breath and step held you in mind. Then, suddenly, one morning--you were grown. We were not finished with you. But, we must love our children enough to let them go. But in our hearts... you will always be... our little girl.

We have watched you grow into a fine young lady, and we are pleased with what we see. We're very proud of you. Thanks so much for being our daughter and sister.

We love you,

Dad, Mom, and Casey

How time flies!!!

Congratulations Cariann!
 We are very proud of you. You have always been very special to us.

Our prayer is that God continues to bless and keep you as you enter another exciting phase of your life. You're the best daughter and sister in the Universe!

Love,
 Mom, Dad, and Travis

Congratulations, Angela!

It doesn't seem possible that the 7 lb. 4 oz. "bundle of joy" the doctor placed in my arms 17 years ago is finally graduating!! But here you are, all grown up and heading for college. We are so proud of the independent, God-fearing Christian young lady you have become, and for the way you are committed to achieving your goals no matter how difficult your chosen path may prove to be.

Never forget that God has a plan for your life, and if you continue to let Him lead you as you live, you will never be disappointed or sorry. You are all that we ever hoped for, more than we ever deserved, and our love for you knows no bounds. Thank you for bringing us to this day with honor and pride. We love you to death!

Dearest Jodi,

I guess Dad won, you did basketball instead of gymnastics. You are a total joy in our lives. Thank you for all the fun you have brought to us. We have enjoyed meeting all of your friends and sharing in your memories your senior year by living in the Valley.

Love ya, Mom

Daddy's little precious girl arrived at midnight Aug. 1, 1979. Our world changed overnight with our little bundle of joy. You were given balls to play with from the time you began to walk. We have a million memories, thousands of smiles, hundreds of pictures, and tons of memorabilia. We have watched you grow and mature into a beautiful young lady. You have played many sports and games and become a tremendous athlete. But we are most thrilled that you have decided to be a Christian and serve others in this life. Love, Dad

Hey, Tom, you DID it! We love you and are so proud of you!

Say YES to the Rest of You

Yes to academic excellence. Yes to Christian fellowship. Yes to small town living near the nation's capital. Yes to working at IBM, NASA, or the White House while in school. Yes to performing at Carnegie Hall or enjoying the Smithsonian museums. Yes to making a difference for the glory of God.
