MESSAGE

Dear Shenandoah Family:

It is my sincere hope that you enjoy reflecting in this 2006 SVA yearbook until Jesus comes.

In the meantime, let's remember where we are, where we need to be, and what we need to strive for. And please don't ever forget that we do not travel alone.

Do you look at the directory in the shopping mall when you go "out on the town"? Or do you just take your time and wander from store to store? I need the directory; I need to know where I am and the direction I need to go to arrive at the appropriate store. These signs are great as they state very clearly "You Are Here." From that point I can usually find that store, be about my business and on to my next appointment without unnecessary delay. It's the same way in life; we have parents, teachers, and friends who offer assistance. They share with us where we are, where we can go, what we can achieve. Have you taken appropriate advantage of these times of sharing or do you think you have it all figured out and no assistance is necessary?

My prayer is that each of us, students and staff, will follow the Heavenly signs that tell us "You Are Here" and follow those signs that will lead us right through eternity.

Sincerely,
John Nafie

Why are you here?

Kelly Mangum – Because I didn't like
HVA so I came to a way better place.
Because I wanted to come to a place where I was allowed to be who I really am.

Tom Muraw - Because I was here last year.

Courtney Martin: "Because I chose to come to SVA to graduate, like the rest of my family."

Martina Martin: For a good Christian education. To learn more about God and develop my relationship with Him through a Christian environment and support.

Bradyenne Matthews – This is a great school. It's fun and spiritual. All my friends are here. The teachers care about you and they want you to succeed.

Sean Meyer: ... You would know, to I'm here if you have been to L.A.

Why are you here?

Heather Moore: "I came to this school to meet new friends and that is exactly what I did. I would be made the friends I've made for as long in the world. I love going to school every night."

Ayden Aladkoff: Because my parents moved to Jordan.

Walter Paine: My brother's ex-girlfriend came here and told my parents about it.

Micki Polk: Helming I want to be

Essiea POC: "I've learned a lot at SYA, and I've had some really good memories."

Student Life

The Return to SVA

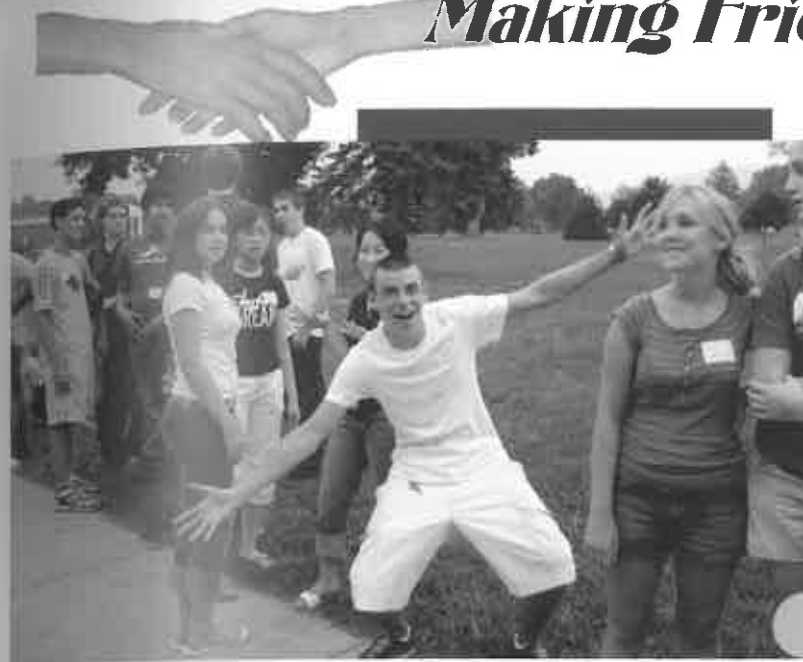

Registering, moving into the dorms and unpacking, filling out the billions of registration forms, waiting in line for 3 hours for the business office, seeing old friends and meeting new students, meeting faculty and staff, comparing tans, new students coming in several months after school began, carrying books everywhere, meeting the new taskforce deans, getting settled in, fixing up your room, saying tearful good-byes to parents, talking 'til 2 a.m. with your friends about your summer (or because you couldn't sleep), going to Wal-Mart for things you forgot, beginning a fresh, new year.....

Making Friends and Shaking Hands

Handshake '05-'06

Shaking everyone's hand and then not washing your hands afterwards, the traditional Senior wearing of the crowns and gloves, eating yummy ice cream afterwards, learning new names and faces, Dean J having worship, putting lip gloss on the gloves, waiting in line before you shake everyone's hands, getting germs and disgusting stuff on your hands...

When it comes to hands, Noella N. really knows how to shake it..

Almost Anything Goes

Kings Dominion

4 way volleyball, getting dizzy from spinning around the bat, falling from the mattress as they're passing you around, balancing a life saver on toothpicks, sticking the smallest person through a tangle of ropes, getting stuck in the tangled mess of ropes, blowing a ping pong ball across the floor, slipping on the slip n' slide, enthusiasm for your class, class unity

Getting really sunburned, swinging chair ride, The Drop Zone, bus ride to and from, not seeing anyone from the school (except the people you were with) all day, big prizes, hot weather, free water, the water slide, eating pizza, riding Tomb-Raider and if hurting a lot (especially for the guys), riding as many rides as possible, waking up way too early on a Sunday morning after Almost Anything Goes, Sean dancing with a Latino girl that he didn't know, being with other elite upperclassmen, having fun off campus at an amusement park, waiting in 2-3 hour lines, getting soaked on the water rides, chilling at the waterpark, being with friends.....

Min Ji's classmates are good at supporting her. >>>>

Good thing Matt R didn't get kicked out for bringing those 'guns' inside the park. >>>>

Julie H. and Patrick H. (green) with other 'lan' >>>>

Lean, mean, fighting machine... >>>>

Ben M. and Katie R. can't stop picking at each other >>>>

FALL PICNIC

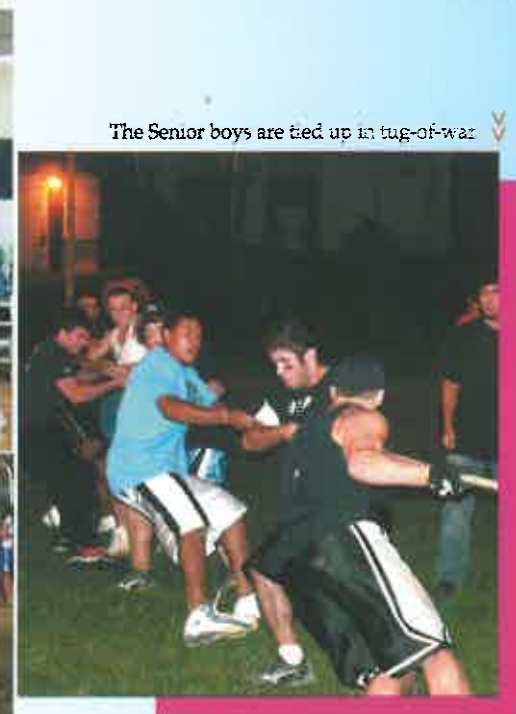

Heather Middag gives Kristin D a run for her money

Ashley M, Cassie B, and Preston L have definitely had their share of pie

Sunday night had intense basketball and softball games, Preston L. eating his vomit, Jamie C. getting stepped on in Rock, Tree, Bush, by Bridgette M., Picnic Dinner at New Market Park, Sophomore girls winning tug-o-war, having tennis matches a week after picnic, great food (especially the watermelon), Lunch on Front Campus, No school on Monday, JJ singing karaoke, the close volleyball match between the Juniors and Seniors, quickly going from swimming to running track, Freshmen guys basketball team lacking togetherness, Walila P. running like lightning speed, Senior boys dominating in basketball, Seniors "winning" the picnic...

That's one small step for Simeon D and one giant leap for the Senior Class

The Senior boys are tied up in tug-of-war

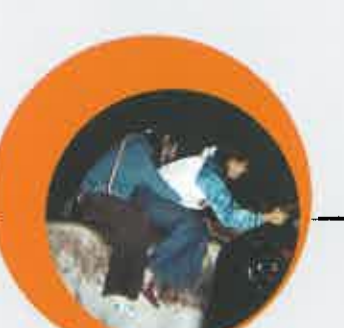

The Big Apple

New England Tour '05-'06

Dean J singing on the bus ride, Times Square at night, getting to see Phantom of the Opera, getting lost in Boston, dyeing people's hair in a hotel room night (Jessica E's hair turned bright red.), hanging out and laughing with friends, getting to see the Empire State Building, excitement of Plymouth Rock (haha!), snow on the way home from N.H., Sabbath "afternoon" hike....rainy, wet, and dark, bowling Saturday night, the hostels, Dean J eating enough food for 10 people at the Olive Garden, stealing the car keys from Oscar, muffins every morning, La Familia in Boston Thurs. night, shopping in Boston, New York pizza, Toy's 'R' Us in Times Square.....

B A R N F E S T

 Riding the mechanical bull.	 Rockin' out with the band.	 Sumo wrestling with friends.	 Eating yummy caramel apples.	 Dressing up as super heroes.	 Being gangsta.	 Acting like a hick.	 Will's, Godrick, Tristan, and Jodie strike a pose.
 Jon B. having a winning good time.	 All these girls seems to be happy at the barn party.	 Dressing up as the Flintstones.	 Having an admirable performance on the bull.	 Having an admirable performance on the bull.	 Having an admirable performance on the bull.	 Having an admirable performance on the bull.	 Having an admirable performance on the bull.

Learning to be a Leader

Leadership Conference '05-'06

Leadership was awesome! Paddling the paddle boats in the middle of the lake, Sean and Amanda jumping off the boats to swim in the seaweed lake, chasing geese, chilling on the benches, being "enthusiastic", going out to Ledo's, having a meeting at the park, the guys getting in trouble, spending time in the rooms, Pastor Roja's mustache, informational section meetings, prayer...

THE SVA WORK FORCE

GRADING PAPERS AND WORKBOOKS, PUTTING GRADES IN THE COMPUTER, FINDING ENGLISH WRITERS' PAPERS AND STICKING THEM IN ENVELOPES, ANSWERING THE PHONE, CLEANING THE BATHROOMS AND OTHER RANDOM AREAS, TAKING PICTURES, COUNTING MONEY, THE TIME GETTING TO KNOW YOUR BOSS, CLEANING AND DECORATING THE OFFICE, SLEEPING, SLACKING OFF, CLEANING THE BOSS DOWN, SKIDDING WATER...

Senior Recognition

Taking a long time to get everyone down the aisle, Senior Class partner walking crisis, sitting up front, Matthew C. nervously doing this back step thing, Mrs. Beasley and her hand motions while reading our remembrances, walking in sync w/ our partner, Maria J., Jessica P. and Dale P. doing the trio, Jenny R. singing, Mrs. Cathlin's words of wisdom, being seniors....

& Extravaganza

Huge silent auction, Pastor Rob's enceeding skills, Maria J. Jessica playing classical pieces, the waiting room skit, Jared's twitch, Dale playing 'The Scientist', Kaydee K. singing extravagantly, Courtney M. freed us with her song, String Ensemble ending the night with class, the endless announcement of auction winners, cleaning up....

To Kids from 1 to 92

Adopt a Child '05-'06

Everyone fingerprinting butterflies and animals, playing musical chairs, watching the kids open their stockings filled with yoyo's and little treats, getting to see the look on their face when opening their presents under the tree, talking with the kids and getting to know them, Rosario and Nidia talking to them in Spanish and being able to communicate & making them feel more comfortable, Cassie W. getting pushed off a chair during musical chairs, and Caitlyn getting into the games, making a kid's Christmas....

A Musician's Heaven

Candlelight & Saturday Night Band Concert '05-'06

Getting to see alumni and old friends, Night time practices, the candle going out while walking to your spot, Mr. Rumsey trying very hard to give away the poinsettias, the snow machine not working, brass and woodwinds playing from the balcony, having a full crowd at both concerts.

Christmas in November

Boy's Club Banquet '05-'06

Sean frolicking in his cuddly teddy bear suit, bunk a burning day in his red Buick, shoes, all hail the powerful genre, Mr. Buckholz, just married? What? Chris is a the bleeding clown, yungay food-eating flowers & whipped cream, selling up and taking down the decorations for banquet with the boy's club crew, shooting Paul K with the Nerf gun, Sean K. rocking it on guitar, guys getting to see the girls' room, the bear head, pulling out 50 raffle numbers and still not getting a winner, faculty serving the food to the students, no more, Sean M. & Chris L.'s new report, Den V. stumbling down the stairs.....

Dale P. & Amanda L. are happy to be at the banquet.

We want you for the SVA Army!

“Home away from home...”

Life in the Dorm
Setting fire crackers off in front of people's rooms, staying up til 2 a.m. because your talking to friends about life, waiting for worship to start because everyone is talking, playing text twist, computer games, video games, etc., talking on the phone, playing pranks on underclassmen, working at the front desk, sneaking out of your room during study hall, girls finding mice and screaming their heads off because they're scared, standing in the freezing cold because of a fire alarm, having picnics and cleaning belly buttons, piercing ears, and, of course, homework....

ACADEMIC ANCHORED

Studying up til the wee hours of the morning and falling asleep in class, dissecting pregnant cats with broken spines, playing Su Doku when the teacher wasn't looking, forgetting to do homework, Mr. McNeil's cheesy mathematical love jokes, Mrs. White's random thoughts, hearing Pastor Rob's class singing during 6th period government, Bible presentations, all the seniors failing that English test, Mrs. Sigler's enthusiasm while subbing, skipping class to have lunch with friends, spending time with my "buddy", Mrs. Beasley's excitement for math, Mr. LaPierre's french jokes, debates in Bible class, talking and interrupting class, donuts in psychology, and learning something new in each class...

Taking a BREAK

Playing basketball, watching people play pick-up, intramural sports, Chris B. & Simon D. trying to make a basket from the other end of the court, watching t.v. in the student center, lifting weights with Mr. Buchholz, swimming in the pool, sitting outside on the benches, winning a t-shirt for intramurals, staying in the dorm eating peanut butter and marshmallows, couples spending time in the lobby of the gym, weight room talks, playing Su Doku, going to basketball games, hanging out friends.....

A Celebration of Excellence

The Cafe serving fancy food, people not being able to light the lighter, the Juniors and Seniors with their chant, how everyone that was missing was "studying", receiving certificates of excellence, Tucker and Jae Hun flinging the star confetti in people's drinks, coming late and not being able to find a seat, students starting to see stars because of all the camera flashes, proud parents watching their kid's receive their rewards...

Freshmen

Seniors

look what i can do

Talent Show 2005-2006

Heather and Cassie acting like buff men, Jeremiah's poetry, the silly emceeing by Dean Jay and Taylor, Sean Hsu's guitar skills, the Handbells and their silly hats, Tucker being a nuisance, Kaydee singing from the heart, Maria's jazz song, Jared, Evan, and Dale, making it rain, Hannah taking us through the seasons, Jessica and Mike doing a duet, Alysse's acapella...

music to my ears

Music Performances 2005-2006

boring trips, staying up late and talking at CUC, telling stories about nursing homes, making fun of the conductors, bowling, Tappahanock Concert, Jae Hun getting left behind, Jae Hun walking up on stage while the CUC band was playing, the Smooties that energized you, the star falling during the Christmas concert, the snow machine getting stuffed, bells playing the national anthem at JMU....

Roma

*Do you know CPR?
Because you just took my breath away...*

Valentine's Banquet 2005-2006

the yummy food, people throwing spoons and knocking water on girl's dresses, anxiously waiting in the dorm for the boys to come pick up the girls, Jamie's fish dying right before the banquet, standing in line forever for the horse carriage, the freezing cold horse carriage ride, having to go to school earlier that day, girls getting ready and primping, freaking out about how to do your hair, the guys getting searched by Sig before leaving the dorm, skipping banquet, and getting ditched by your banquet date at the very last minute...

WERS

When in Rome.....

Receiving strange calls at the hostel in Athens, the drunk people at the hostel in Rome seeing a lot of circus, fight food groups, "NoneYa business", orange cows, getting shipped off to Albania, sassing off the guys that tried to sell fake CDs, eating mystery meat, pasta, and feta cheese on hamburgers, the undiesnaked statues, Kati's awesome driving, photo shoots in the Coliseum, the fire extinguisher incident, running out of donuts, 80 euros, Mr. Ramsey juggling in the airport and hitting a lady, balconies, kisses from a waiter, vendors selling "designer" bags & sunglasses, the old man on the scooter in Corinth, gibberish, it's all Greek to me, Jonathan giving a penny to the accordion player, the bed on the bus, pina colada gelato, Taylor's first confessional, David going camera happy, the Korean National Anthem, the statue in Pompeii, dangerous districts, singing in the cathedral at Oviseto..

Mr. Miller just can't seem to find the time.

Bon Voyage Mon Ami....

France, Switzerland, Italy.

Snowboarding and skiing in the Alps, Paul H. mooching off of EVERYONE, playing the pig game and Aw-Shucks/7-Up, Mr. Battle and Mr. LaPierre's driving, having girl talks until 1 a.m., cheering in French at a professional soccer game, small coffee cups, lots of drama, walking through lots of towns, Lake Geneva, Jared C. walking halfway around the mountain (8 km!!!!), Bridgette M. getting lost, going to the biggest car show in the world, going through all the tunnels to get to Italy, the most beautiful mountains we'd ever seen, freezing cold rain, not being able to communicate with the French, the Boulangerie and it's pastries, Mr. Kemmerer getting pulled over, not getting any stamps on our passports...

Sports

BUMP, SET, SPIKE!!!

Volleyball '05-'06

2nd place in the league - because there are only 3 teams in the league! Ooo Yea. Never having warm-up music. Beating Massanutten 2 times, practices, Eric not going to the last game, beating HVA in 5 games (but it should've been 3), basically giving up on the Notre Dame games, bus ride to Notre Dame (railroad tracks and Mr. Miller's crazy driving habits), sack suppers < , new plays that we still don't know how to play, Jenifer and Kara's "chemistry", Oscar's great job at coaching.

Kicking and Screaming

Soccer Season '05-'06

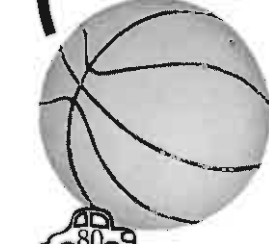

Long practices, actually playing soccer, sleeping on away games, at Randolph Macon the score was 0-0, 'til half time and then we scored 2 goals & won the game, thought of the day, winning season, Sean S's short shorts, scoring goals. Evan T. getting knocked out by the ball, Walila P. getting 4 goals against HVA, the soccer team streaking across the field....

Guys & Girls

JUNIOR VARSITY

Singing and dancing in the bus after the games, warming the benches, Jessica L. chasing the eagle at Bridgewater, the Varsity players coming to a JV practice and helping the girls out, Caitlyn C. fouling out almost every game, the adrenaline from stealing the ball, girls getting injured, Jen V. making all her foul shots, Jessica L. getting mad at the end of every game, Jen V. falling during every game.

Jon B. dunking off of Sean S.'s back, Caleb N. & Sean S. doing the sprinkler during half-time at Moorefield, having a 18-0 shutdown during one quarter, getting ice cream after one of the games, everyone singing oldies songs in the bus, Evan T.'s weird basketball moves, Grady getting kicked out of the game at Martinsburg during overtime, Evan T. getting 21 points and 14 rebounds against Fishburne.....

Caitlyn C. protects the ball with her life.
Taylor T. struts down the court.
Sean S. with a breakaway opportunity.
This would be a perfect time for Caleb N. to get big!

We're playing...

BASKETBALL

VARSITY

Visting Alcatraz, Indian Blonde, No Cell Phone Service at PUC, traveling too and from the games, Mr. Slocum dancing, Dr. Davis and his talks, beating Spencerville, Jenifer's 3 pointers, Erica getting more aggressive this year, growing as a team.

Texas, almost beating Notre Dame, flirting with girls, bus trips, listening to Mike and Demetrius free-style, Jon Lacey's block on 6'7" Notre Dame player and dunking, beating HVA

Cross Country

Being part of the first cross country team here at SVA ever. Dale P winning every race, Kellen J., Jamie C., and Bridgette M. getting lost at Blue Ridge, the bus breaking down on the mountain before the conference tournament, Nobel's talk show, running in a circle on the field, Nobel taking the boat out on the lake, running/walking up the orchard 6 times, running 3-4 miles every day, the boys placing 2nd in the conference, but the girl's team placing 1st in the conference....

Mr. Buchholz gives the team some direction.

Spiritual

God's Presence in Nature

Playing football by the lake, the stupid geese, really good marshmallows, the fire kept going out, walking up and down the hill, trying to throw Temi in the fire, the yummy s'mores, listening to Pastor Rob's guitar music, people just having fun...

The Lord is good to everyone. He showers compassion on all his creation. Psalms 145:9

"Being in nature makes me feel close to God..."

Letting God sweep us off our feet...

Shortened classes, being allowed to hear the different testimonies and how God changed our fellow classmates' lives, spending extra time in prayer during the week, evening prayer meetings in the student center, receiving a blessing from the testimonies, having Shawnessey come back and spending time with him during our Week of Prayer, "I could run away", having no tests or quizzes, Friday night communion, learning how to take care of our bodies, having a really powerful afterglow, vespers are extra special, and letting God work in our lives....

TAKING A DIFFERENT DIRECTION

The end of the school year is a time for rejoicing over the successful completion of another year. It is also a time for sadness as we say goodbye to friends and school family. This is especially true when there are staff that will not be with us next year.

It is our prayer that God will bless you as you go on to other places and positions. May your impact there be as great as it has been here.

WE WILL MISS YOU!!

And so it is that we say farewell to Dean Jay, Dean Woods, Mr. Lipscomb, Mr. & Mrs. Becker, Mrs. Herrington, Mr. & Mrs. Beasley, and Mr. Blackburn.

Please Read Before Entering

I am currently sitting here, listening to Coldplay. I have been trying to write something so profound and so great that when you read this I hope you start to cry. I want you to be able to understand what I'm trying to say. And I want this page to be about so many things, but I don't know how to say them all. So I guess it's a good thing that this yearbook is supposed to go in many different directions.

If you haven't already noticed the theme is 'You Are Here.' You may be wondering, what in the world does that mean? Well, I'll tell you. It's supposed to mean that wherever we go in life, we can always look back at our time at Shenandoah Valley Academy. We can always remember the good and bad. There is something we all have in common and it's this place. After homeleave, we all come back here. Why? I have no idea, but we do it anyways. But while you were here, I hope you made the best of everything. I hope that even if you hated it here, you found just one thing to like.

You're in high school only once, so make some memories. If you haven't noticed, our lives basically revolve around SVA. We go to school, do some homework, hang out with friends, and we do it all here. This is our home whether you like it or not. For some strange reason we are all here, and this is exactly where we are all supposed to be.

I don't know why, but since it is the end of the year, I hope you have figured it out. Also, I know all of you will really miss it here this summer and I know that the Seniors will really miss this place next year. So the point I've been trying to make is we're all going in different directions. Whether you're returning here next year or heading off to college, we will always have SVA, and that is something you can count on. So we can always remember what we left here and that is why, right this very second,

"You Are Here."

Dear Robbie,
Dad and I are so proud of your many accomplishments.
Remember as you continue to follow your dreams that we will always be in your cheering corner and proud of the strong, yet caring man you have become.

Keep God first in your heart
now and forever.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Dear David,

Acuerdate de tu Creador en los dias de tu juventud. Eclesiastes 12:1.

May our GOD bless you today and
always.
I pray that you will continue to study.
Whatever happens in this world
my love for you will never change.

I love you more than my life.

Your mom, Miriam

Heather,

Eighteen years ago, as the nurse tried to take you, mom held on.

We couldn't believe we got our daughter. Your catch phrase became, "Hold on" and "I do it myself."

From dolls and butterflies to high heels and gowns
you have not only been our princess but a source of pride and joy. Our prayer is that you continue to "Hold on" to God's hand as you experience life's challenges and blessings.

Congratulations to a delightful daughter and sister!

All our love always!

Dad, Mom and Greg

To Talia (the gentle dew from heaven),

From the beginning we knew you were a special gift. We've always been so very proud of you--watching you grow so quickly into the wonderful, lovely person that you've become. We wish you happiness and success as you travel through life with Christ by your side. Our love and prayers will continually be with you.

Mom & Dad

Congratulations Caleb!

We knew you could do it. Continue to think for yourself. God has given you tons of talent! Use it to honor him.

Love, Mom & Dad

I could have no greater joy than to hear that my children live in the truth. 3 John 1:4

Ryan,

Four years ago, SVA was a future possiblilty... soon it will be part of your history. Friendships made over the past 4 years are treasures to be valued throughout eternity. To say that we are proud of you -- just like to say we love you-- is a major understatement.

Since we first heard your heartbeat and saw you on the sonogram, you etched a precious spot in our hearts and minds. You provided us with volumes of memories to cherish. From the time you threw the stapler in a perfect spiral across Mom's classroom -- before you were 2-- to the smiles etched on the faces of family and friends when you lend a helping hand or demonstrate consideration for others, those memories are keepers. Your fighting spirit on numerous athletic fields over the years has demonstrated a God given talent that can serve you will-- never give up when focusing on your goals.

Savor the moment, son. This is a time of celebration for you, your classmates, your supportive family,
and your caring teachers.

Your creative spirit and zest for life will serve you well as you face the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead of you. You will be successful as your pursue your dreams, because our Lord has blessed you with the ability and determination. As your #1 fans (yesterday, today, and tomorrow), we pray that your future will be built on the rock of eternal success-- a personal friendship with Jesus Christ. With him, you will have eternal success beyond your wildest dreams... without him, success may be wonderful for a season, but it will quickly pass like your days at SVA.

Love,
Your Mom & Dad, & Justin

*Mary Bailey~Congratulations~

is grown-up*

Dear Kel Bel ("TELLY"),
As you graduate from academy and go on to college, continue to:

Keep God supreme in your life,
Enthusiastically embrace life to its fullest,
Laugh readily and forgive freely,
Love others as yourself, and
Yearn to be like Jesus and be ready to see him soon.

God blessed you with a caring heart and a bubbly personality and we are proud of you and your accomplishments!

Love,
Mom

MY DEAREST DAUGHTER JESSICA,

I HAVE NEVER BEEN AS BLESSED AS THE DAY YOU WERE BORN. YOU HAVE ALWAYS BEEN MY INSPIRATION AND MY HEART. YOU ARE A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG WOMAN OF WHICH I AM SURE GOD IS MOST PLEASED. REMEMBER TO ALWAYS KEEP HIM FIRST AND THAT HE WILL SEND TO YOU FLOWERS IN THE SPRING, A SUNRISE IN THE MORNING, AND THOSE BEAUTIFUL SUNSETS THAT WE LOVE SO MUCH. MOST OF ALL....

*"I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat, but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed*

*I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes, I hope one more opens
Promise me you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance, I hope you dance."*

Congratulations and know that I will always love you!

MOM

Simeon,
Take a deep breath- you've earned it! Congratulations on reaching this important mile marker on the road of life in style. Wherever life's journey takes you, we're behind you all the way. God bless.

Love,
Dad and Debbie

Maligayang Pagtatapos!

Dear Jamie,

It seems just like yesterday that you started kindergarten and now you are finishing the second mile of your educational attainment. As you enter college, please continue to let God be your guide and make him the model of your life.

One down, one more to go. We are so proud of your accomplishments and we hope you will have the same focus and perseverance in your college goal. We love you so much.

Dad and Mom

Dear Ate,

I am very happy that you're my sister and that you're graduating high school. I love you very much and thanks for being there for me. I'm very proud of you. Don't get into trouble in college. Mahal Kita.

Janice

Our Dear Ashley,

What can we say about the last 18 years? We laughed at your antics in England, you had us frantic in France, gave us grief in Greece, had lots of fun in the Far East and swam in the Red and Dead Seas. It has been an adventure at every turn and we have loved sharing the world with you. At times it has been a challenge but it has been worth every minute. We love your spunk and enthusiasm and know you will be a great success in life with the many talents God has given you if you keep him first in your life. We Love You!

Mom, Dad, and Lindsay

Congratulations Maria, you made it! You have accomplished so much in your first 18 years... knowledge, wisdom, languages, music, athletics. You always made your father and I proud. You know what is right. You know what is true. Now you can put on all of your spiritual armor, and face the world.

Love Mom (and Dad felt the same always.)

Dearest Jenny,

Your smile and laughter have always been contagious and never cease to warm our hearts.

You are God's gift to us and we pray for you everyday that you will seek to put Him first in your life and serve Him daily with the many gifts He has given you.

You are about to embark on a new chapter of your life and we are filled with love and pride for you. Always trust in God, allow Him to lead and listen to your family, who wants only your happiness.

Continue your journey with confidence that we will always love you.

Mom, Dad, Jason, Jeremy, GF, & Grandma

Dear Val,

It seems like yesterday when we brought you home. But we know it's been a long and sometimes rocky path you had to walk through. You've grown into a wonderful man, and we are proud of you.

We hope you'll remember what you learned these past 18 years from family, friends, and teachers. And while we can see the future now, if you remember to let God guide your life, you'll always do well.

We love you,
Mommy, Daddy, and Ana

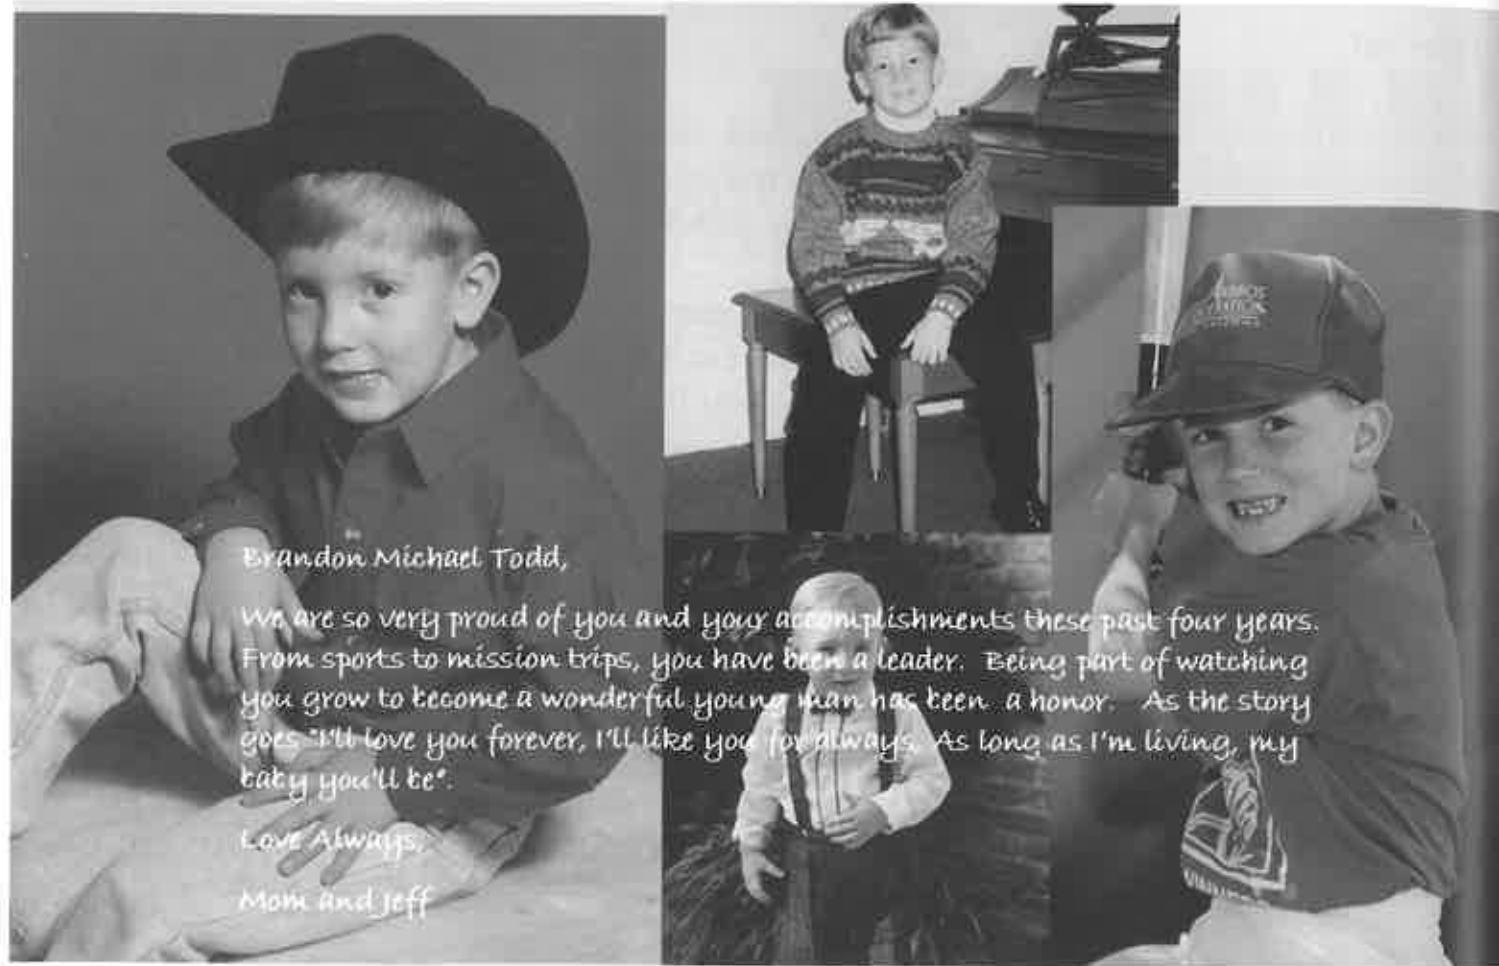

See It Through
By Edgar A. Guest

Whenever you're up against a trouble,
Meet it squarely, face to face;
Lift your chin and set your shoulders,
Plant your feet and take a brace.
When it's vain to try to dodge it,
Do the best that you can do;
You may fail, but you may conquer,
See it through!

Black may be the cloud about you
And your future may seem grim,
But don't let your nerve desert you;
Keep yourself in fighting trim.
If the worse is bound to happen,
Spite of all that you can do,
Turning from it will not save you,
See it through!

Even hope may seem but futile,
When with troubles you're beset,
But remember you are facing
Just what other men have met.
You may fail, but still fighting;
Don't give up, whatever you do;
Eyes front, head high to the finish.
See it through!

Congratulations, Josh!

Since your birth, you have brought us so much joy, always able to make us laugh. You are an incredibly talented, fun young man with a heart for God. We could not be more proud of you. We love you, and know your future is bright.

Love, Mom, Dad, Adam, and Ben

We are all VERY proud of you!
No matter where life takes you, remember Kristi,
"... with God all things are possible."
(Matthew 19:26)

We Love you always

Congratulations!

are YOU ready?

MAKE AN IMPACT ON YOUR WORLD

Dear Trevor,

It doesn't seem possible that you are now a senior! Not long ago you were catching frogs and turtles, making forts and playing with GI Joes. But here we are with you all grown up. We are very proud of you. Your sense of humor has kept us laughing over the years. Don't lose it! As you continue your life journey, always keep Jesus first. Let him be your guide as you make career choices and friends. He will never fail you.

All of our love,
Your Family

Jonathan,

The past eighteen years have gone quickly. Our little boy has become a young man we are very proud of. God has given you many talents. Your musical ability, common sense, and great work ethic will take you far in life. Never forget, we are always here for you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and

Dear Christopher,

Since the day you were born, from the time you could walk, through your fascination with frogs, and your participation in all things Nintendo. From rollerblading to snowboarding, basketball to baseball, and running to camping, we have enjoyed watching you grow up and become the young man you now are. You have applied yourself at a good Christian school and excelled. For this we are thrilled. We believe you have the potential to achieve whatever you set your mind to do, and pray that whatever that may be you keep God in your life.

With All Our Love,
Mom & Dad

Dear Courtney,

What advice can I give to someone as unique and special as you?

- Always wear sunscreen...
- Old movies & tea time make everything better.
- Share your voice with others- it's phenomenal!!!
- A fruit picked early will still ripen & be wonderful.
- No matter how near or far you are nothing will ever separate the love I have for you.

You CAN achieve anything and I'm proud to

You were born full of the first of promise. Even prior to your birth, God had a marvelous plan for your life. We are extremely proud of the STUNNING young woman you have become filled with wisdom, courage, outstanding talent and a compassionate heart.

Always remember:

*To lead you must serve
 To succeed you must fail
 To be extraordinary you must be different
 To live for eternity you must die at the foot of the cross daily*

Our prayer is that one day, you will finish the race in the arms of Jesus!

Jared,

It is hard to believe that 18 years have passed since you first came into our lives, but here you are, and boy are we proud. While the school accomplishments are admirable, it is the honest, caring, trustworthy, and honorable person you are that we are the most proud of. Take all these attributes with you to the next phase of your life, and we have no doubts that you will experience success in everything you try.

Our Dearest Erica,
We can't believe we are writing something for your senior annual. It just seems like yesterday that we were taking pictures of you on your first day of pre-school. You have been a special blessing to us from the first day we were told, "You have a baby girl!" We look with anticipation to how God will bless your future. How proud we are of you.

Our love
always,

Mom and Dad

Marissa--
From infant till now, your smile's still aglow,
With a love inside that just overflows,
You are so special to each of us,
That we just have to make a fuss!
We want you to know how special you are,
And our love will go with you whether near or afar.

Joseph,
Congratulations! We are all proud of you. We hope that you will now go forward and continue developing the talents God has given you.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Anthony, and Brenden

Courtney,
It's been such a joy and honor being your dad these last 17 years. Not to say there haven't been rough times; there have. But to see who you've become as a young woman makes me proud to call you my daughter. You have so many talents--number one being your ability to be a true friend, your gift of singing. Well, words can't describe the joy I get from hearing your angelic voice. Courtney, you have so much to offer the world. Don't sell yourself short. No matter what we go through as a father and daughter, just know that I will always love you.

Love Always,
Dad

Dear Jessica,

Jesus created you with all your special talents, He redeemed you with His blood and He claims you as His own. And so you can always trust Him, for He has a wonderful plan for your life. We love you very much, Jess, and we are so very proud of you!

Congratulations!

Congratulations, Paul!

We are proud of your accomplishments. Always use your talents and gifts to serve God, for that is where true happiness lies!

You have always been a special son and we are thankful for the joy you have brought into our lives.

Happy Graduation Day!
Love Mom and Dad

Dear Timothy,
You are about to begin a new chapter leading to your future. Life's choices and decisions are yours to make. These past years have been filled with many friends and experiences. Although the world looks at you as an adult in many ways, we still look at you as our precious child. You have a desire to enjoy life -- may you never lose that. In the coming years, we pray that you will better understand that God has a plan for you filled with hope and success. If you seek Him with all your heart, you will find Him and He is faithful and true to fulfill that promise." We continue to pray for you, that your joy may be full.

We Love you,
Mom and Dad

Andrew, you have always followed your own path and have had a unique way of looking at your world. Remember "the only way of finding the limits of the possible is by going beyond them into the impossible." ~Arthur S. Clarke
